Virginia Commonwealth Games to host Wrestling – TOMORROW (June 29)

The Virginia Commonwealth Games at Liberty University, organized by Virginia Amateur Sports (VAS), is excited to host Wrestling, Wednesday – June 29 in Lynchburg. The competition will begin at 10am in the LaHaye Multipurpose Center at Liberty University. Like with all VA Commonwealth Games events, Bronze, Silver and Gold medals will be awarded. For more information, click here.

For 33 years the Virginia Commonwealth Games have provided excellent opportunities for thousands of Virginians to develop and foster new relationships, establish new goals and personal bests, while at the same time learning teamwork, sportsmanship, as well as individual team responsibilities.

“We are proud to partner with Liberty University and Virginia Amateur Sports to host the 2022 Commonwealth Games and, most importantly, to welcome all of the athletes, families and friends to our City,” said City of Lynchburg Mayor Mary Jane Dolan. “The Commonwealth Games bring thousands of athletes to the City and we are thrilled that both the number of participants and the impact they have in Lynchburg continues to grow. While you are here, we encourage you to explore all Lynchburg has to offer - from fantastic food offerings to historic sites and exciting outdoor activities. We hope you enjoy your time in the Hill City.”

Save the date for Main Games weekend – July 22-24, which always upholds a positive reputation with the community for bolstering tourism and serving as an economic engine to the host city each year.

“We're honored to be hosting this event for the seventh consecutive summer, and we appreciate everyone who has made the 2022 Virginia Commonwealth Games possible. We wish each athlete the best as they use their God-given abilities to push themselves to new personal bests.” - President Prevo, Liberty University

Presented by Centra, ABC 13, Liberty University, and the City of Lynchburg.
